

To prohibit XM from broadcasting local content such as traffic and weather information is simply un-American!
Since when does the government decide if competition is allowed to be introduced in a free market society?

Let the consumer decide if the service that XM provides is worth $10 per month.
National or Local content is irrelevant.